October 1, 2025—December 31, 2025

Market summary as of December 31, 2025

Investment options composed of underlying Vanguard funds

Global financial markets continued to advance in the fourth quarter of 2025. Strong corporate earnings and two interest rate cuts by the Federal Reserve supported both stocks and bonds in the United States.

The broad-market Russell 3000 Index returned 2.40% for the quarter. Global stocks returned 3.24%, as measured by the FTSE Global All Cap Index in U.S. dollars. European and other developed markets outside the U.S. performed particularly well, while emerging markets lagged. Although concerns about inflation and high AI stock valuations occasionally weighed on sentiment, fiscal stimulus in Germany and ongoing economic growth in Japan helped buoy markets across Europe and Asia.

With inflation pressures moderating, Fed policymakers lowered short-term interest rates. The federal funds rate now is at a range of 3.5%–3.75%. The bellwether 10-year U.S. Treasury note’s yield finished the quarter at 4.17%, up slightly from 4.15% at the end of the third quarter. The broad U.S. investment-grade bond market returned 1.07%, as measured by the Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Float Adjusted Index.

Bonds outside the U.S. returned 0.48% for the quarter, as measured by the Bloomberg Global Aggregate ex-USD Float Adjusted RIC Capped Index Hedged.

Vanguard

Vanguard Charitable is one of the largest charities in the United States. We were founded by The Vanguard Group, Inc. in 1997. As an independent, nonprofit, public charity, Vanguard Charitable is focused on increasing philanthropy by administering the highest-value donor-advised fund—a tax-effective way to invest, grow, and give assets to charity.

Although Vanguard provides certain investment management and administrative services to Vanguard Charitable pursuant to a service agreement, Vanguard Charitable is not a program or activity of Vanguard. While we are separate entities, Vanguard Charitable is strongly aligned with Vanguard's principled investment philosophy and unwavering values, including its commitment to ethics, transparency, and at-cost investing.

We firmly believe that minimizing costs can help maximize philanthropic impact. No other donor-advised fund can extend the direct benefits of Vanguard's at-cost investments as we can.
