Coalition for the Homeless believes that affordable housing, sufficient food and the chance to work for a living wage are fundamental rights in a civilized society. Since its inception, the charity has worked through litigation, public education and direct services to ensure that these goals are realized.

The Partnership To End Homelessness is committed to building a just and equitable society and creating lasting community change through solution-oriented programs and policy initiatives that will eliminate the root causes of homelessness. They intervene to ensure that everyone has a home to return to. They also do more than address the immediate crisis; which is bringing the stability of home back into people's lives.

Nearly 80,000 people are experiencing homelessness in NYC. That's about one in every 106 people. The Bowery Mission

Jericho Project works to advance its mission to end homelessness at its roots by creating a community that inspires individual change, fosters sustainable independence and motivates men and women to reach their greatest potential. The charity supports over 600 units across eight congregate supportive housing residences in New York.

Breaking Ground's commitment to ending homelessness is brought to life through the buildings they own and manage. Whether by preserving historic landmarks or developing innovative new buildings, collaborating with partners or acting on our own, they create housing that is safe, affordable, and an asset to the surrounding community.

BronxWorks empowers Bronx residents by providing them with the services they need to uplift their lives and communities. They help individuals and families improve their economic and social well-being. From toddlers to seniors, they feed, shelter, teach and support their neighbors to build a stronger community.
