The Greater Philadelphia Coalition Against Hunger strives to build a community where all people have the food they need to lead healthy lives. The Coalition connects people with food assistance programs and nutrition education; provides resources to a network of food pantries; and educates the public and policymakers about responsible solutions that prevent people from going hungry.

SYSTEMS-LEVEL CHANGE: 20%

Share Food Program leads the fight against food insecurity in the Philadelphia region, by serving an expansive, quality partner network of community-based organizations and school districts engaged in food distribution, education and advocacy.

Downtown Daily Bread is the only one-stop, walk-in resource center for all hungry and homeless individuals in Harrisburg County. They offer a Soup Kitchen with weekday breakfasts and daily lunch meals, in addition to shelter and numerous assistance programs. Downtown Daily Bread is a mission project of Pine Street Presbyterian Church.

In Pennsylvania, over 1.4 million people are struggling with hunger—nearly 400,000 of them are children. Feeding Pennsylvania

With a single donation to the Solving Hunger in Central Pennsylvania Smartfund, you can combat hunger on multiple fronts: providing food directly to those in need, improving the efficacy of existing services, and making systems-level change so that fewer people will experience food insecurity to begin with. In this way, every dollar given to this Smartfund will generate both a significant immediate impact and results that grow over time.
